NEWS AND HAPPENINGS:

Courtney Smalt has returned from Europe and will be reporting to us on her trip next month.

PEOPLE TO PEOPLE
AMBASSADOR PROGRAMS

On the 12th of September, at 3pm, Caroline Valley Community Church will host ministers and clergy from all over this part of New York. The occasion will be an Installation Service for Pastor Dan Phillips. This will be an opportunity for renewal, dedication, worship, and fellowship. Please plan to join us on this Sunday afternoon as we celebrate the relationships we have with each other and with our associated churches.

Our regular Sunday morning Bible Study will begin again on the 19th of September at 9:45am. The BIBLE CLUB classes will teach those ages K to 13. And the adult class will begin a survey of the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament). Please plan to join us for these educational opportunities!

Movie Night will resume next spring. Thanks to all those who took part in the 2010 movies series with us. If you want to see any of the movies shown, please contact the pastor about borrowing the church copy of the movie.

We had a GREAT Art Camp! Thanks to all the workers who helped: Kathy Storck, Elaine Sapp, Carol Lavelle, Lorraine LaDue, Courtney Smalt, Bonita Ferguson, Pat Weaver, Shaka, Sabrina Dodge, Sue (Elaine's friend), and Martha Phillips who led us. Thanks also to everyone who contributed supplies and prayer for this event.

The camp hosted 14 children, and everyone had a good time. The arts taught included fabric art, music, creative writing, bead crafting, watercolor painting, acrylic painting, and many others.

We thank God for this safe and blessed happening. Please be in prayer with us as we follow up on this opportunity to reach our community.
